

Attached is a power point document on how Dual Enrollment Students can access the CTC Library's ebooks.

Below are a few tutorials that might also be helpful.

Here, you will find the link for a tutorial to use Primo, Columbus Technical College Library's Online Catalog. In Primo, you will find the selection of physical books we have at the library, as well as electronic resources.

Here, you will find the tutorial for GALILEO, Georgia's Virtual Library. GALILEO holds over 270 databases of scholarly articles, journals, and more.

Here, you will find a tutorial on how to navigate the Library Webpage. The link to the webpage is library.columbustech.edu.

If you find yourself on-campus, the CTC Library has the following resources available for your use:

- Study Rooms (individual or group)
- 2 computer labs
- Research Assistance
- Magazines
- Printing and Lamination
- Exam Proctoring

The Library also offers research assistance to help students get started in the research process. We offer research assistance in the form of phone calls, emails, and in-person consultations. You can reach the library by phone at 706-649-1852, or email at library@columbustech.edu.
